

FIRE SAFETY TOKYO 2018

FIRE SAFETY TOKYO 2018(FS '18: Efu Esu Juhachi)

Tokyo plays host to three events this year: the Tokyo International Fire and Safety Exhibition 2018, the 30th General Conference of the International Fire Chiefs' Association of Asia (IFCAA), and the 47th Kanto Region Fire-Rescue Meet!
The name for these three events is "FIRE SAFETY TOKYO 2018 (FS '18: Efu esu Juhachi)." The TFD is going to have the FS '18 as the good opportunity of giving the latest fire and life safety information.

~ Improve Fire Safety ~

Before the Olympic and Paralympic Games Tokyo 2020, Tokyo plays host to the following three events this year. The year 2018 is for the Fire Department to achieve another step forward with "Improve Fire Safety" as the slogan for the three events.

The Tokyo International Fire and Safety Exhibition 2018

Admission free

【Period (4 days)】 May 31 (Thu.) — June 3 (Sun.), 2018
【Place】 Tokyo Big Sight (East Halls No.5, 6 & 7 / Outdoor space)
【Organizers】 Tokyo Fire Department (TFD)・Tokyo Big Sight
Tokyo Int'l Fire & Safety Exhibition 2018 Executive Committee

The Exhibition has been held about once every five years since 1982. The TFD showcases its professionalism and offers disaster simulations in hopes of improving the visitors' disaster preparedness and making "the world's safest metropolis—TOKYO" widely known with community residents and private sectors.

IFCAA 2018 TOKYO

(The 30th General Conference of the International Fire Chiefs' Association of Asia (IFCAA))

For Fire Chiefs & executive officers only

【Period (3 days)】 May 30 (Wed.) — June 1 (Fri.), 2018
【Place】 Tokyo Big Sight (Conference rooms on the 6th & 7th floors)
【Organizers】 International Fire Chiefs' Association of Asia (IFCAA)・Fire Chiefs' Association of Japan (FCAJ)
Firefighters' Association of Japan (FAJ)・Tokyo Fire Department (TFD)

Tokyo is host to the IFCAA Conference for the first time in ten years. It is an international event for Asian fire chiefs to develop camaraderie and safety expertise, share information and skills, and thus enhance Asia's fire-rescue systems overall. The Conference offers the following: technical meetings, foreign fire service fact sessions, international rescue demonstrations, international rescue techniques workshops, the commendation and presentation of the theses on newly developed/improved equipment and emergency services, Japanese firefighters' opinion sessions, etc. The Conference will have the members of the special committee for the Olympic and Paralympic Games Tokyo 2020, too.

The 47th Kanto Region Fire-Rescue Meet

Admission free

【Date】 July 5 (Thu.), 2018
【Place】 Yumenoshima Fire Department Training Site・Tokyo Tatsumi International Swimming Center
【Organizers】 Firefighters' Association of Japan (FAJ)・Kanto Region Branch・Tokyo Fire Department (TFD)

The selected rescuers from Kanto Region prefectures get together and demonstrate their daily professionalism to cope with challenging disasters. The Meeting offers a good opportunity to make emergency responders' efforts widely known—the efforts to realize the "safe city" for everyone, that is.
